NEW YORK TIMES NOV 24 1956

Approved For Release 2003/12/02 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100140033-9

Text of Pravda's Editorial Discussion of Soviet Union's Criticism of Soviet Union's Policies

Following, in unofficial translation, is the text of an article yesterday in the Soviet Communist organ Pravda, as provided by Moscow's delegation to the United Nations and as received in London by Reuters from the Soviet news agency Tass:

The events in Hungary, where the counter revolution succeeded in going into action to attack Socialist achievements and the Peoples Democratic order, have evoked a deep response in the minds and hearts of all people who hold the interests of socialism dear.

In all the countries of the Socialist camp the intrigues of reaction have been unanimously condemned. The speeches of the leaders of the Communist parties of France, Italy and other countries have shown the unanimity of views in the ranks of the world Communist movement on the question of the events in Hungary. The Communist parties of capitalist countries are manfully fighting against the debauch of reaction.

Events in Hungary show that the reaction for its anti-popular purposes tried to exploit the accumulated grievances of the working masses who were justly demanding an improvement in the le[illegible]

[illegible] to spread the prin[illegible] Soviet leaders for not [illegible] Tito reproaches [illegible] Yugoslav relations [illegible] agreements concluded [illegible] between the U. S. S. R. and [illegible] Slavia. Tito reproaches [illegible] generally positive [illegible] of the development [illegible] for peace and [illegible] of the interest [illegible] people of [illegible] contradic[illegible]

French Socialists disgraced themselves and again showed that they are the most faithful servants of the circles that try, at any price, try to maintain the old classical forms of colonialism . . . And this teaches us, comrades, to be careful because it shows that the carriers of the so-called [illegible] democracy—France and Eng[illegible]—are for peace, justice [illegible] democracy only in words. [illegible] they are sources [illegible] can spring e[illegible] [illegible]onary and a[illegible] if opportu[illegible] presented."

[illegible] evaluation [illegible] follow[illegible] height[illegible] unity [illegible]

Soviet Branch; Calls Talks

[illegible]

nand he encouraged the active resistance of the counter revolutionaries and remained in touch with them.

Not encountering with determined resistance on the part of Imre Nagy's Government, the counter revolutionaries got hold of arms, created armed gangs which then received aid from the imperialist states, and dictated conditions to Imre Nagy's Government.

Nagy 'Had No [illegible]

Imre Nagy's [illegible] practically had [illegible] the country [illegible] Parliament [illegible] with [illegible]

New York Leads Nation With 107,291 Passports

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)—The State Department said today that New York had led all states with a total of 107,291 passports for foreign travel during the first nine months of this year.

California was second with 60,272 and Illinois third with 28,843. Neighboring New Jersey nosed out Pennsylvania for fourth with 27,269, just ninety-seven more than the Keystone state, which nearly triples New Jersey in population.

Tours of Western Europe headed the list of destinations. Among individual countries the British Isles led, with Germany second. Other Western European nations were third, leading the Far East and South America.

Pleasure trips outnu[illegible] all other reasons fo[illegible] while steamships le[illegible] of travel with 51 [illegible] all journeys. [illegible] cent of passe[illegible] air as the [illegible] The rema[illegible] not lis[illegible]

with Hospital Emblem — Wonderful Heritage

New Yorkers have inherited the finest hospital system in the world. It is ours to use in time of sickness, emergency and accident. It is also ours for checkups, for treatments not requiring hospitalization, for prenatal and well-baby care.

Part of our legacy is in the development of new vaccines and cures for malaria, typhoid, tuberculosis and diphtheria. Another part includes the development of antibiotics, radioactive medicines, new kinds of surgery and a more thorough knowledge of medicine.

[illegible] received all of these [illegible] the civic-minded individ[illegible] the past who endowed [illegible] non-profit hospitals [illegible] subsequent contribu[illegible] Hospital Fund voluntary [illegible] that serve [illegible]

[illegible] find its adherents and follow[illegible] ers if it withstands the test of time and gives positive results. Conversely, it is laughable to take umbrage at other countries if one method or another applied in one country is considered unsuitable for another.

What are the advantages of the "Yugoslav road to socialism" about which Yugoslav authors speak? Answering this question, the authors of articles in the Yugoslav press usually refer to one innovation or another of a political character.

But socialism—the new social structure—presupposes the reconstruction of the economy, which is the basis of all social life. This reconstruction has begun in Yugoslavia, but, as the Yugoslav comrades themselves know well, much still remains to be done to complete this reconstruction.

It is known that in Yugoslavia's economy a great role is played by agriculture, but nonetheless, in the area of grain production there still has not been attained the prewar level, and unfortunately the victory of socialist relations in agriculture is still distant. It is known also that the annual deficit of wheat in Yugoslavia is approximately 600,000 to 650,000 tons.

U. S. Aid Noted

It is completely evident what [illegible] significance the aid received from capitalist states, [illegible] the U. S. A. has [illegible] economy of Yugoslavia. [illegible] of the situation [illegible] Yugoslavia, in the [illegible] year, [illegible] of utilizing [illegible] contradic[illegible]

The Pietro Baldi classic in superb cotton, imported from Italy just for Macy's and designed to fit the American figure. 10-18 in beige, wheat, gray, black, white, blue. Dept. 63.

4.94

Better Blouses, 1st Fl., Herald Square, and all branches.

A real life-size doll (over two feet tall) with vinyl head, rooted hair, moving eyes—and she coos, too. Dressed in zippered snowsuit of pink or blue. Dept. 12.

4.98

Usually 8.98

Macy's Toy City 5th Floor, Herald Square and all branches.

Approved For Release [illegible] RDP70-00058R000100140033-9