Sprague Electric Co. Adds Board Member

Dr. Augustus B. Kinzel

Dr. Augustus B. Kinzel, a research metallurgist, was elected yesterday as a director of the Sprague Electric Company of North Adams, Mass.

Dr. Kinzel terminated a 26-year career as research vice president of the Union Carbide Corporation on Aug. 1 to become president and chief executive officer of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies at La Jolla, Calif.

Dr. Kinzel is 65 years old. He was graduated from Columbia University in 1919, from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1921 and from the University of Nancy in France in 1922.

He has served as a consultant to the Los Alamos, Oak Ridge, Argonne, Knolls and Brookhaven Laboratories.

As a member of the initial Manhattan District Committee for the World Control of Atomic Energy, Dr. Kinzel helped draft the classified report that formed the working basis for the Lilienthal and Baruch plans.
