2. For your guidance these instructions apply to all American personnel, whether staff or covert. However, it is possible that not all covert personnel can be informed in sufficient time to permit them to file returns and pay income taxes, before the end of this year, on incomes for years preceding 1947. It is 25X1 25X1 emphasized, too, that any income tax returns filed by a person in a covert status 25X1 [redacted] indicate [redacted] as being [redacted] [redacted] but should show, 25X1 if possible, any income derived from Government sources as having been received from the [redacted] [redacted] It is recognized that, in certain 25X1 cases, this may be difficult to do. If there are valid security reasons for 25X1 failure to file income tax returns as required by law, and if there is reason to believe that failure to file does not merely indicate an attempt at income tax evasion, we shall make every effort to ensure that no person is unfairly penalized as a result of his undercover employment by this organization.

3. Please read the instructions carefully, and then determine which [redacted] 25X1 personnel, in your opinion, should be advised to file returns for 1946 and preceding years if they have not already done so.

4. Your attention is called to paragraph 1 of this memorandum, requiring its destruction after the information contained therein has been made available to all personnel.
