

United States relief efforts in Pakistan

Photo summary of operations to date

November 7, 2005

Produced by Public Affairs Section, U.S. Embassy, Islamabad

Pakistani soldiers, in conjunction with U.S. service members, deliver food, tents, and other supplies to earthquake survivors at Devalian, Pakistan, on November 3, 2005. The United States government is participating in a multinational humanitarian assistance and support effort lead by the Pakistani Government to bring aid to victims of the devastating earthquake that struck the region October 8, 2005.

Photo credit: Airman First Class Barry Loo, U.S. Air Force

U.S. Staff Sgt Bridget Fitzsimmons, operating from Chaklala AB, Pakistan, assists local Army personnel in the offload of supplies from a U.S. Army CH-47D Chinook helicopter in the village of Chilonari, Pakistan on 3 November 2005. Humanitarian aid continues to pour into the country and is ferried to remote areas by U.S. helicopters following a devastating earthquake on 8 October 2005.

Photo credit: Master Sgt Bruce Dzitko, U.S. Air Force

Chaplain Marvin Lucky from Task Force Griffin, the aviation element based at Chaklala AB, Pakistan, assists local service members in the offload of supplies from a U.S. Army CH-47D Chinook helicopter in the village of Chilonari, Pakistan, on 3 November 2005. Humanitarian aid continues to pour into the country and is ferried to remote areas by U.S. helicopters following a devastating earthquake on 8 October 2005.

Photo credit Master Sgt Bruce Dzitko, U.S. Air Force

Members of the Pakistani military help unload a U.S. Army CH-47 Chinook helicopter Nov. 4 at Chillonari, Pakistan. The United States government is participating in a multinational humanitarian assistance and support effort lead by the Pakistani Government to bring aid to victims of the devastating earthquake that struck the region October 8, 2005.

Photo Credit: Staff Sgt Quinton Russ, U.S. Air Force

Mansehra Forward Operating Base Office Director Bryan Hunt and USAID DART member Mariza Rogers meet President Musharraf during his Eid visit to tent camps in the devastated city of Balakot. The Embassy has opened two offices in Mansehra and Muzaffarabad to coordinate U.S. interagency relief and assistance in affected areas of northern Pakistan.

*Photo Credit: Christian De Angelis,
US Department of State*

Major Peter Vien and Petty Officer Manny Baca of the Navy Seabee construction teams discuss setup of a tent camp for displaced persons. Vien and Baca met with Pakistan civil and military officials, UN agencies, and NGOs at a Pakistan government agricultural research station. The Seabees will build two community kitchens and a school/community center at the camp, which will accommodate up to 1,000 tents and 6,000 people.

Photo Credit: Christian De Angelis, US Department of State

Mansehra Forward Operating Base Embassy officers Christian De Angelis and Michael Newell deliver three computers and a printer to Mansehra's District Planning Officer Syed Zaher Ali Shah. The computers, donated by the US Embassy, were urgently needed so that the DCO's office could enter earthquake damage data electronically and distribute it to other Pakistani officials and NGOs that are coordinating relief efforts.

Photo Credit: Christian De Angelis, US Department of State