MEMORANDUM FOR: The Record

SUBJECT : US Army Europe Raw Reports

25X1

25X1 1. A conversation was held today with [redacted], CRR ([redacted]) to clarify the use of Forms A, B, & C in transmitting subject reports to Headquarters.

A. Form A is used to transmit reports which may or may not be officially published. They should go only to the primary interest in CRR.

B. Form B is used for reports which will not be officially published. These should come to DD.

C. Form C is used for reports which have been assigned a regular R-number and will be published by ACSI. These should go only to CRR.

2. As long as DD processes only Form B raw reports we should have no duplicates and complete coverage. Form A items subsequently published will be received from ACSI. Form A items subsequently determined as not to be published will be sent again as Form B items.
