U. S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100060002-2

SEP 30 1955

Ag 3-1

X- Pol 1 Gr. Brit.
X- Pers 3 Gr. Brit.
X- Sec 1 Burgess & MacLean

CPYRGHT

A SILENT MAN in the [illegible] the uproar in Britain over the [illegible] internal security is Richard Whi[illegible], director of MI-5—closest counterpart in that country of America's FBI.

Little known outside of high Government circles, the top man in MI-5 was a colonel in Britain's Military Intelligence Service when he received his present assignment in September, 1953, two years [illegible] the agency [illegible] the night [illegible] uy [illegible] out [illegible] he [illegible] nor even [illegible] d.

[illegible] British security chief shuns photo[illegible] s, cli[illegible] anonymity, is seldom [illegible] zed [illegible] Foreign [illegible] Office [illegible] Yard. The size [illegible] dget o[illegible] secrets.

[illegible] ld-ma[illegible] former ins[illegible] at [illegible] dge [illegible], Mr. [illegible] got [illegible] his [illegible] in the U. S. [illegible] died [illegible] Universities of California and [illegible] an.

During World War II, the security head served as a counterintelligence officer on the staff of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became well known to Allen W. Dulles now Director of the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency.

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100060002-2