Most nations require travelers entering their borders to obtain a visa, i.e., an endorsement made on a passport by the proper authorities denoting that it has been examined and that the bearer may proceed. The visa permits the traveler to remain in a country for a specified period of time.

Visa, formal endorsement placed by government authorities on a passport, indicating that the passport has been examined and found valid by the nation to be visited, and that the bearer may legally go to his or her destination.

passport insertion: an official endorsement in a passport authorizing the bearer to enter or leave, and travel in or through, a specific country or region.

authorization: a mark of official authorization.

supply document with visa: to insert a visa in a passport or other document.
