BERNARD SHAW: The FBI today announced the arrest of two people in separate espionage cases.

Samuel Morison, who worked as an analyst with the Naval Intelligence Support Center in Suitland, Maryland, was arrested last night at Dulles Airport outside Washington.

An FBI spokesman detailed the charges against Morison.

FBI SPOKESMAN: A complaint filed with the U.S. District Court of Maryland charges that Morison transmitted and disclosed three classified satellite photographs of a Soviet aircraft carrier under construction in a Black Sea naval shipyard to Jane's Defence Weekly.

One of the photographs appeared in an August 8th, 1984 article in the Washington Post.

Morison is also employed by Jane's Fighting Ships, a publication in London, England, as a part-time U.S. editor.

SHAW: In the other case, the FBI arrested an East German woman in New York last night on charges on being a Soviet spy. Alice Michelson was arrested as she tried to board an airplane with classified U.S. documents. The FBI said Michelson worked for the Soviet KGB.
