CIA Recruits; Incurs Protests From Groups

By IRENE SALINAS

A personnel recruiter for the Central Intelligence Agency interviewed UH senior and graduate students in Oberholtzer Hall yesterday—while in the hallway about 25-30 students staged a sit-in against the CIA.

"Accounts of CIA involvement in political coups in Africa, Asia and Latin America cannot go unanswered. Also, reports of CIA aid to the terrorist Diem regime in South Vietnam raise grave doubts as to the validity of CIA activities. There is also the question of CIA involvement with the U. S. National Student Association, which is of direct concern to

It doesn't matter what's what, or what's right, it only matters that you think others will think you should think.

Man, we not only don't lead parades . . . we are even careful which parades we follow.

Oh, man, this could go on and on . . . how I could count the ways we get ourselves and others down. But it is such a hassle to even think about it . . . and why should I get up tight if the rest of the world is
