U. S. Kin to See Peking Prisoner

HONG KONG, May 13 (UPI)—The brother and mother of an American serving a life prison term in Communist China for alleged espionage arrived here by plane today en route to Peking for an expected two-week visit with him.

The imprisoned American is John Downey, 35, who was convicted on spy charges in 1952. He is being held in a Peking prison.

His brother, William Downey of New Britain, Conn., and their mother, Mary Downey also of New Britain, expect to cross into Communist China early this week, probably Tuesday.
