

From the art of war: chinese general 2000 years ago;

Tactical outlook:

- Sun Tzu said: the good fighter of old first put the selves beyond the possibility of defeat, and then waited for an opportunity of defeating the enemy.
- If you know the enemy and know your self you need not fear the result of a hundred battles . if you know your self but not the enemy, for every victory gained you will succumb in every battle.
- Hence that general is skillful in attack whose opponent does not know what to defend, and he is skillful in defiance whose opponent does not know what to attack.
