1. The Chilean delegates to the Third World Youth Congress of the World Federation of Democratic Youth in Bucharest, Rumania, 25-30 July 1953, must pay their own passage, which is estimated to be approximately 75,000 pesos for each, but all other expenses connected with the trip and their stay in Europe are being paid from Party funds.[1] Upon instructions from the Party the Communist press devoted a great deal of space to stimulating interest in the congress, and student, youth and sport groups sponsored all types of fund-raising activities for the trip to Bucharest.

2. To raise funds for the delegates the Communists sponsored the showing of a film on bacteriological warfare in Korea at the Students' Federation, on Calle Merced 711 on 21 June. This film, which is owned by the Instituto Chileno-Chino de Cultura (ICCC), may have been brought to Chile from Peiping by one of the Chinese delegates to the recent Continental Cultural Congress in Santiago.[2]

25X1A [redacted] Comments

25X1A 1. [redacted] reported that approximately 130 Chilean delegates would attend the Bucharest congress and that the majority would sail for Genoa from Buenos Aires on 10 July.
