NOTE FOR: DDI

FROM: DCI

Bob:

I'd like to plan a meeting, as suggested in the attached memorandum to Lionel Olmer, with Olmer and some of his staff, some DDI and some NIC people sometime toward the end of next week.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable Lionel H. Olmer
Under Secretary for International Trade
Department of Commerce

SUBJECT: National Intelligence Council Memorandum 82-10006: The United States in the World Economy: Elements of Strength

1. Thanks very much for sending the detailed critique of the NIC Memorandum. The attached response was prepared by the memorandum's authors. I send this as a matter of interest and not to precipitate any continued argumentation.

2. I want to assure you and those who so painstakingly analyzed the paper that this exercise further confirms the need on which we have already agreed to work more closely together in sharing perceptions and assessments. When [redacted] gets back from vacation next week, I plan to schedule the further meeting we had talked about. 25X1
