25X1 1. The west shore of the port of Makarska, destroyed during the war, is presently under repair. In the port is a small pier approximately fifty to sixty meters in length. At the entry to the port two tunnels, begun by the Germans and completed under Tito, have been constructed. The tunnels are approximately twenty meters in length and serve as shelters for torpedo boats.

2. A People's Militia station and a small KNOJ unit comprise the only military protection for the port.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
