In The Name Of God the Merciful the Compassionate

Without doubt, the Moslem began to rise from their inadvertence and stumble. If we wish to be steadfast and advancement, we must monitor the march, figure the gaps and block it; diagnose the illnesses and treat them.

Dear brothers,

The mention of illnesses and mistakes never mean putting someone down. Look at The All Mighty God admonishing His Prophet Muhammed and his companions in more than one instant in the Holy Koran, and he mentioned their violations in the battles of Uhod and Hunayn. Then there is the Prophet repeatedly mentioning the illnesses and what would happen to this nation because of it. He does not mention the illness except to find the cures for it. Therefore, our goal if the illness is described or the failure is mentioned is two things:

First: Increase the trust in God and that He never break His promise in achieving victory to the faithful. On the contrary, we did not do our part.

Second: Know the actual reasons behind our weakness and failure. Giving advice is obedience to God and leads to consensus. Adulation is a sin, which causes dissension and torment. We must understand that we are humans, we make mistakes, and know right from wrong, we experience pleasure and anger, and we are not infallible. Knowing this fact makes the treatment easy and available.

If we diagnose the illness, we must know its real and exact size without exaggeration. Also, it is urgent to cure the illness before it spreads and becomes hard for us to treat.

There are in this place people who gathered to gain money, tribal power, a Ministry or to rule an Imarah; we gathered here to please the Almighty God and defend the faith of Islam. So let us defend Islam with ourselves so God will give us victory over the infidels.

Everyone I see in front of me here is praying to God to be a martyr defending Islam.

We would be extinct if we did not stay in touch with our relatives on the maternal side. Do you know our position in the day of resurrection? You can find the answer in the Prophet tradition narrated by Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari, when he gathered the tribe of Ash'aris and taught them prayers as performed by the Prophet Muhammed in Al-Madinah Al-Munawarah. When he finished praying, he turned to his people and said learn the way I performed the prayers, it is the way the Prophet peace be upon him performed it. Who when finished turned his face towards the people and said, listen and understand and realize that God has people other than prophets and martyrs served and pleased by prophets and martyrs in their living quarters and closeness from God. A Bedouin man approached the Prophet, raised his hand and said, people from the people not prophets nor martyrs served and pleased by Prophets and martyrs in their living quarters and closeness from God?

Please describe them to us. The Prophets' face was lit with delight for the Bedouins' question and said: "They are people of extinct people and strangers of the tribes who did not stay in touch with their relatives on the maternal side. They new mutual love in God and became sincere. In the day of resurrection God will make for them platforms of light and will seat them on it. He will make their faces of light, scare the people on the day of resurrection but they will not be scared. They will be the saints of God never fearing, never saddened.

Narrated by Ahmed and Al-Tabarani

Is there a better advantage? How is it for he who combines this advantage and the advantage of martyrdom? It will be indeed a great honor. I pray that God bestow this honor on us all.

The one who advises you does not become your enemy if you don't accept his advice and said I am rewarded by God.

The difference between the advice and backbiting is that the advice is meant to warn the Moslem of an individual's bad characteristics such the time the Prophet advised his daughter Fatimah on whether to marry Mu'awiyah or Abu Juham. He replied by saying that Mu'awiyah is a miserable, spineless individual; and as far as Abu Juham is concerned, he does not put his cane where he wishes. Some of his friend who traveled with him (Abu Juham) added to be aware of him if you meet him away from his tribe.

If backbiting occurs but meant to be an advice to serve Islam and Moslems then it is a good deed. On the other hand if it is meant to put down your Moslem brother then it is considered one of the great sins mentioned in the Holy Koran.

Mu'ammam Bin Rashid Bin Humam Al-San'ani said, "The best one to give you advice is the one who fears God in you".

The late Bin Rajab said, "The advisor has no purpose in spreading the defects of the person he is advising, but to eliminate the problem he is experiencing. Therefore, the advisor must have mercy on his brothers and his nation, and adopt a wise method in giving his advice".

The late Misfir Bin Kidam said, "God bless the person who presents me with my faults in secret, advice in the open is considered scolding.

If the advice was private and circulated, then it is reprimand. The late Bin Al-Qayem says in the book entitled "Al-Rouh (Soul) and the Difference between the Advice and Reprimand". The advice is a beneficence to the person we are advising in a picture of pity and mercy on him. It is pure beneficence deriving from pure mercy and the advisor goal is to please God only.

*Page 100 of 314

One of the differences between the advisor and the reprimanded is to be a secret between the commander and the commanded. As for the rumor and spreading the faults, it is what God and His Prophet have forbidden. It also applies to those who prefer spreading atrocity among the faithful.

*Page 114 of 314

In the Name of God the Merciful the Compassionate

Verses of the Koran:

“Oh you the faithful, be God fearing as you should, and don't face death without being Moslems”.

“Oh people be God fearing who created you of one soul, then created many men and women. Be God fearing, whom you question and the wombs, God is always watching you”.

“Oh you the faithful be God fearing and always say the truth, He will make your deeds righteous and forgive your sins. He who obeys God will achieve the great victory”.

“Wal'asr, the humans are the losers except for the faithful who did the good deeds and advised each other with truth and patience”.

In the beginning of this Sura, The Almighty God swears in one of His creations (He has the right to swear in any of His creations), Al-'ASR in this case and says that the human race is a loser but excluded only those who have the following four characteristics: (Faith, good deeds, advise others with the truth and patience). The late Al-Shafi'i said, “If the people carefully considered this Sura, it could have embraced them.

Al-Tabari said in the meaning of (advised each other with truth and patience). They advised each other to adhere to God words in the Holy Koran.

The truth lies in the book of God, and the advice on patience means that they advise each other to act on the obedience of God.

Al-Naysabouri said in the word “Al-Tawasi” (Advice) without Prayer or Advice is eloquent confirmation as if it is an important matter such as the last will and testament.

Advice is a matter Moslems are keen on. Its existence in any society is evidence of the right path, and the will of affluence, usefulness and righteousness for all is the dominant spirit.

The advice should not be a reaction to specific moment, or ignored over time until mistakes and incidents are accumulated. Our goal should always be advice and not being courteous to each other.

The advice is usually given for God, His Prophet, the Holy Koran, the Moslem Scholars and common Moslems too. Tameem Bin Ous Al-Dari Narrated from the Prophet that he said, "Faith is Advice. We said to whom? He said, "To God, His Book, His Prophet, the Moslem Scholars and their commons".

In his book entitled "Tayseer Al-Kareem Al-Rahman", Sheikh 'Abd Al-Rahman Al-Sa'adi says, "Advice to God and His Prophet is in true faith, and sincere intention on jihad with resolve when able and do the necessary to encourage Moslems to join jihad.

In explaining the meaning of advice to Moslem Scholars/Imams, Bin Hajar says, "Advising Moslem scholars is to assist them in their tasks, and caution them when negligent, support them when they make a mistake, and gather the people around them. Giving them good advice means keeping them away from injustice in a friendly manner.

Giving advice Moslem result in many benefits, here are some of it:

The advice is the essence of religion and faith, and the sign of wishing good and detesting evil for others.

Continued dialogue about the Jaji battle:

Evidence of the incidents and battles to benefit from it and awaken the Moslem nations that imagined the defeat and purchased for our generations.

- The Soviet Union was a great power, and the poor, sheep herder Afghans inherited old automatic rifles they used to fight the British. Some freedom fighters sell some sheep to purchase few rounds of ammunition.
26,000 modern tanks facing few tens of shoeless Afghans. Faith could not be understood by all the tanks and modern weapons on this earth if the man put his faith in God.
- During 1986 (1406H and the beginning of 1497H) over 50,000 Russians were killed in Afghanistan. God is my witness that the symbols of the movement at the beginning of the war were looking astonishingly towards us. During some meeting, they were saying loudly do you really think you will achieve victory over the Russians? The reply by leaders in the Arabian Gulf to leaders of the Afghani Jihad when they requested their assistance was you are crazy, who fights the Russians?
