I see one of the comments is praising the islamdertal animal he has the misfortune of being related to.

This looks to be the younger brother interviewed on television (extensively) a couple of years ago.

I'm not sure if he's Muslim or not? His parents are raging hippies that eventually got involved in some psuedo-free love version of Islam. Who knew, right?

A google search does show that there's a brother named Omar. It appears that the media has known about Omar for a while.

OPINION

I watched this video.

Thank you for posting the link.

I am one of the harshest critics of jihad on FreeRepublic.com.

If this young man is really "Azzam the American's" brother, I feel really sorry for him.

One cannot pick and choose their immediate family members.

So, as for me, I will see what the content of the future videos are before drawing any conclusions.

Really explains the end result of multiple hits of acid over a long period of use.

I'll ride along with you for a while Cindy.
I'm pretty sure the whole family is aghast at the situation.

One too many hits on the bong for the parents back in the mid 70s is my guess.

Folks, what you see there will only be more of it.
That is liberal hippies joining the islam cult. Something about is attractive to them.

The naive' hippies have always been seeking some "meaning" for their lives, while the true meaning was right under their noses. In seeking to be meaningful they will blindly walk into the Islamic trap. It reminds me of the story of the boy and the Rattlesnake. The one that involves a rattlesnake trapped on an icy mountain who asks a kind boy to carry him down the mountain and promises not to bite him. Sadly for the boy, he breaks his word. When the shocked good Samaritan ask him why, " He says , "You knew what I was when you picked me up. You have no one to blame but yourself. "
