THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The civilian post office in Karlshorst, now located on Treskowallee, will move into its old location at Ehrenfelsstrasse 42 around the end of August or the beginning of September.

2. A German woman who owns a building on Koenigswinterstrasse in Karlshorst has been informed by the Lichtenberg housing office that she will be able to move back into her home, which is now located in the restricted area, by 15 September 1954.

3. A member of the commission for living space in Karlshorst, Walter (fnu), owns a flat in Stolzenfelsstrasse in which he lived for 15 years prior to the establishment of the Soviet Compound. He recently applied to the Magistrat to obtain the return of his former flat. He was, however, informed a few days later that this would not be possible because the building involved would be used by the Magistrat, Berlin, for other, unspecified, purposes.
