EVALUATE

[redacted] 25X1X

1. The former AAA training grounds of ZINGST (N 55/P 25) (location see Annex) and all its installations had been destroyed. Various firms were reconstructing some of the buildings from salvaged material on 5 May 1949. A dairy and a house for BERLIN children were, among others, being built. The still intact former Air Force quarters were occupied by German civilians. The grounds were not occupied by the Soviets and were not in use. The area appeared neglected.
