Chemnitz (K66)

1. Two courier planes and six pursuit planes were observed on the field, which, local residents claim, maintains sixty aircraft. The station complement is approximately [illegible] men. The heavily damaged runways and hangars have been repaired.

Leipzig-Schkeuditz (K12)

2. There is no air activity at this field. A weather station, with Soviet and German personnel, is servicing the Soviet Air Force and Radio Leipzig.

Leipzig-Mockau (K21)

3. The permanent party numbers about 500 men, plus 150 pilot trainees. Approximately 300 aircraft are said to be based at this field. Informant observed two courier planes, twelve pursuits, and twenty-seven "medium weight" aircraft on the field. Hangars and runways have been repaired; gasoline and spare parts dumps are generously stocked. New ammunition bunkers are being planned.
