MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director of Scientific and Weapons Research

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Portraying Life in a Proliferated World

Thanks for your note on "how to live in a proliferated world." I'd like you to go ahead as soon as possible on updating the ten-year list of future milestones mentioned in paragraph 2. Then go ahead, again as soon as possible, to do an amplification of NIE 4-82 or at least those portions of it relevant to future possibilities, particularly specifying:

(a) Where and how weapon candidate states could threaten the peace; and

(b) The probable efficacy of sanctions and other elements of our non-proliferation policy in retarding them if they decided they needed a weapon.
