Dear [redacted] STAT

I enjoyed our conversation today and hope we are able to get together. As you requested I enclose a copy of the much scribbled upon schedule of our visit with last year's Fellows. This year our class, like much of the Nation has its attention focused on the national security justification for the defense build-up. Our group might be as large as 28, but if we come to your shop the size would likely be half of that.

As I mentioned we are also meeting with senior White House staff and members and staff of both Houses of Congress.

I hope this is of assistance. Please call me should you require any further information.

Sincerely,

James R. Schoning
