Dear [redacted]

STAT

Following up on our telephone conversation today, I send you two copies of my talk for publication, including a historical postscript which I think relates today's events to the events surrounding Churchill's speech at Westminster in 1946. I would like to have about 500 copies and will send you a check to cover the cost of putting the talk in print.

All of us enjoyed our visit to Westminister immensely and you have our gratitude for the hospitality and friendliness you manifested throughout our visit.

Yours,

Bill Casey
