2 February 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Operations

FROM: Executive Assistant to the DDCI

The attached has triggered two requests from the DDCI:

a. In anticipation of questions in future hearings, would you please advise what HUMINT was available on Grenada before the invasion -- [redacted] 25X1

[redacted]

b. For the NSC's special activities briefings, the DDCI would like to have a profile of what it takes in terms of the number of contacts, false starts, time, etc., to recruit a typical asset in a number of cultural groups. For example, we have to contact X many people before we can talk to X many before we actually recruit one and so forth.
