NOTE FOR: DCI
DDCI

VIA: V/Chairman/NIC

FROM: Dave Gries

SUBJECT: Presidential Trade Mission to China

1. During his visit to Beijing, the President arranged to dispatch a Presidential trade mission to China. Craig Fuller will lead it. Most of the participants are aerospace industry executives, together with various Commerce Department officials. Anna Chenault and Van Smith, incoming Chairman of the United States Chamber of Commerce, are also going.

2. Commerce (probably Lionel Olmer) has asked me to give an unclassified briefing on Chinese domestic political and economical issues to the group. The President, Baldridge and Meese start off. After they leave, Olmer, three Commerce officials, a State country director, and I will talk briefly.

3. The date is Wednesday, 18 July. I'm not certain I belong in this company. Please advise.
