

United States relief efforts in Pakistan

Photo summary of operations to date

November 26, 2005

Produced by Public Affairs Section, U.S. Embassy, Islamabad

A Pakistani earthquake victim watches as volunteer staff from U.S. private company Alaska Structures construct a tent in Bugna, Pakistan, Nov. 21, 2005. USAID and U.S. military helicopters helped deliver the donated tents and relief supplies to the affected area.

Photo Credit: Photo by Dayton Mitchell, U.S. Air Force

Pakistani soldiers load supplies onto a U.S. Army CH-47D Chinook helicopter in Muzaffarabad, Pakistan, Nov. 19, 2005. The U.S. Department of Defense is participating in the multinational relief effort to bring aid to victims of the devastating earthquake that struck the region Oct. 8, 2005.

Photo Credit: Photo by Barry Loo, U.S. Air Force

A little Pakistani boy from the earthquake affected area returns to visit with a U.S. Marine after being treated days earlier at the tent hospital setup in Shinkiyari by the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps.

Photo Credit: Photo by U.S. Air Force

U.S. Navy Commander Joseph Taddeo treats second-degree burns on the arm of a three-year-old Pakistani boy at a field hospital near Shinkiari, Pakistan on November 19, 2005. Also in the photo is the boy's sister who remained by his side while being treated.

Photo Credit: Photo by Lance Cpl. Scott M. Biscuiti, U.S. Marine Corps

Pakistani army personnel prepare supplies at Chaklala Air Base, Pakistan, Nov. 20, 2005, for shipment to earthquake-affected regions. The United States is providing tents, blankets, pillows, food, and other supplies and services after a massive earthquake struck the region Oct. 8, 2005.

Photo Credit: Photo by Dayton Mitchell, U.S. Air Force