MICROFILMED

Action: FYI

Reference: [redacted] 12286, 10 December 1971

We hope that for the time being at least the following letter from SMABOVE (which merely elaborates on reference) will put to rest the H e i n e case:

"This will serve to confirm telephone conversation of 10 December 1971 between [redacted] and [redacted] concerning the disposition of a court action against Eric Heine. The attached copy of an article appearing in the Ottawa Citizen, issue dated 13 December 1971, provides an accurate account of the court proceedings.

"Heine was acquitted of the charges laid against him in connection with the damages sustained to the Soviet Consular Division offices, 52 Range Rd., Ottawa, the Judge taking the view that a mistake could have been made in the identification of the accused. There was no evidence produced during the trial, by Heine or his lawyer, indicating that the whole matter was a JKLANCE plot."
