particularly to Hans [illegible], Bad Tölz, Oberbayern. [illegible] was described as a former friend of various German Ministry Funk. Before going to Gensed, Roland had been in contact with (fnu) Pabst, believed to be a Swiss residing in Bern, who asked Roland for an end-use certificate from Morocco. Pabst is thought to have informed the Swiss Federal Police of Roland's interests.

c. Sanus S.A., 22 Rue de la Cité, Geneva is known to have good relations with Egypt and to engage in three-cornered trade with Egypt and the CSR and Poland. Matthey (fnu) is the manager. No arms trading is known to be carried on by this firm, but it is thought that Matthey may be aware of such trading.

3. Subject received me like an old friend, with [illegible], [illegible], and much good humor. It appeared that he wished to help in anyway that he could. At one point, [ ] allowed that he believed the Americans to be missing a good [illegible] his friend [illegible] Von [illegible], former German Foreign Minister. Von [illegible] recently told [ ] that Hans Gisevius, former German intelligence officer, [illegible] the United States to collect funds to be used to propagandize for a neutralization of Germany. If Headquarters is desirous of making a contact with Von [illegible], it can be arranged without difficulty.

4. In view of the fact that [ ] old [illegible], [ ] may soon be replaced and also that [ ] has been rehabilitated (he was invited to return to the service last year), it is believed that a stepped-up contact with him would be well worth the trouble. In the future, I shall try to get down to Lucerne every five or six weeks to see him.
