SUBJECT: GENERAL-
SPECIFIC: Dr. Wolfgang SPAKLER

REFERENCE: WIR-1260

Recent information received at Headquarters confirms the history contained in reference with the exception of the treasure aspect. As of October 1951, Subject was not too well-to-do and, from the furnishings in his house, it was apparent that his circumstances were not even equivalent to upper middle class. The rumor that he has some money is prevalent but has never been confirmed. According to the same information, Leopold GOMEZ of the erstwhile Bruderschaft, tried to sell him the idea of establishing that organization without success. The only NSDAP member who ever got anything out of him was Jean HEAVISED, who he helped with short funds to the extent of about $100.00. Subject is at odds with the NSDAP and is not giving them any money.
