

Death

By omaimah Halawa

Time is so precious

When the angel of death came to Nooh ■ peace be upon him and said ' oh Nooh the oldest prophet how did you find the world after living all these years 'and he replied ' I found it like a house that has two doors I went through one of them and out of the ' other one

That's how time passes so fast ■

?How is our death going to be like

Every one seems not to care of this question at all. even though this is our real . future question ■

Are people not scared of dooms-day ? Or is it just they are too interested in the fake ?world than they are in the hear-after world ■

There is always a question mark in our world , but our death is the question mark ■

Question and answer

Do you want to know how your death is going to be like ■

Before you go to sleep think of the following ■

?Did I pray on time ■

?Did I read Quran ■

?Did listen to my parents ■

?Did i interact with other people ■

Did I respect my eldest and, was i nice to my youngest ■

?Is someone sad from me ■

.Complete of question and answer

If yes well congratulation your ready to ■ meet Allah

If not, one advise ■ ask Allah for forgiveness ■

What can one person do before he dies

you can either visit sick or old people or gather money for poor and homeless people

Study well and show people that Islam is not about laziness

Try to bring non Muslim to the mosque and talk to them about Islam

?Could I die today

Why not it was mentioned in the holy Quran ■

You could die when your praying or when ■ your doing a Haram

never put in your mind ' there is no way I ■ could die in 5 minutes ' because you never know when Allah is going to say' be and so 'it is

Your so lucky

1st of all because if you die when your over at a visit at Allah house

If you die because of any sort of disease or sickness because Allah likes you and he wants you to meet him with out any sins

You also know when your going to die so take your chance and ask for forgiveness

.)Your double lucky (con

---

You are dying as a shaheed ■

If you ask Allah for forgiveness at any time then ■ you have to know that Allah never closes his door )especially for us (human

The most important thing you have to know is that ■ what you have lost in this world you are promised from the living thing that never dies that you will get better than it in the hereafter world

What is

it is something that any living thing would like their ending to be there

?paradise

Imagine your self sitting in a house of pearls and then suddenly you felt like eating your favorite dish, in less than a second it's in front of you

All I can say to you is that paradise has something that an eye has never seen before or that any ear has never heard of before or that an heart has never thought of before

My advise to girls

If you want to look nice, especially outside it's not haram but it could be in one situation if you dress the attractive way ■

Go home do your make-up dress as nice as you want, yes I know that your family is the only people to see you but that is the point ■

If you went out with tight jeans and top it's definite that guys will look at you not because they want you in a halal way but because they think you're a toy which means there going to through you at the end ■

If your getting married wouldn't you like for your husband to see for the first time so it would be a very beautiful surprise

What would you like to be like, a flower or a pearl, its obvious your going to choose a flower, but put it that way the flower every one touches it, every one feels it, and what happens at the end they through it because it gets old

Exactly like you

The last thing

If you die today what do you think the people are going to say, are they going to say oh mash Allah she /he were very good they did what was meant for them or the opposite she /he were the worst on earth all she/he did was ruin the earth more than it is ruined

It doesn't matter if you itab in the world because, all you'll get in the hear-after after world is rest

Promise Allah and promise the result you will do the best you can
