THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION FOR THE RESEARCH USE OF TRAINED INTELLIGENCE ANALYSTS

A well-informed, reliable source.

Lt. Colonel Entzerov, Internal Affairs Section, SVA, instructed Police President Kühn on 14 July 1964 to dismiss immediately, because of their "provocative attitude toward the SAA", the Chief of the Schutzpolizei Hans Küng (now on leave), Dähler, Chief of the PIK Squad (now on leave), and Hagendorf, Chief of the Fröndrichshain Unit. Entzerov also ordered the appointments of Wagner and Beckmayr to succeed Küng and Hagendorf, respectively.

(Additional: The Soviet move involves the dismissal and appointment of "city-wide officials" subject only to Quadruplet agreement. This is considered the worst provocation to date on the city level, especially in view of Colonel Kalinin's statement when the Roundtable was dissolved that the Soviets will "continue to respect Quadruplet agreements".)
