OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

A DIRECTORY

DI CS 2008-03
Supersedes DI CS 2008-2
March 2008
Information received as of 3 March 2008 has been used in preparation of this directory.
The Chiefs of State and Cabinet Members of Foreign Governments directory is intended to be used primarily as a reference aid and includes as many governments of the world as is considered practical, some of them not officially recognized by the United States. Regimes with which the United States has no diplomatic exchanges are indicated by the initials NDE.

Governments are listed in alphabetical order according to the most commonly used version of each country’s name. The spelling of the personal names in this directory follows transliteration systems generally agreed upon by US Government agencies, except in the cases in which officials have stated a preference for alternate spellings of their names.

NOTE: Although the head of the central bank is listed for each country, in most cases he or she is not a Cabinet member. Ambassadors to the United States and Permanent Representatives to the UN, New York, have also been included.

Bhutan—NDE

Per new laws pertaining to the illegality of cabinet members with political party affiliations remaining in office during the pre-election caretaker regime, all but three members of Bhutan’s previously existing cabinet stepped down in late July 2007 in advance of first-ever parliamentary elections slated for early 2008. The current caretaker cabinet—which consists of only three remaining members—is tasked only with maintaining day-to-day government functioning and not with formulating new government policies.

Pakistan

The country has a caretaker government until general elections are held and a new government is formed. The next general election is set for 18 February 2008. Most Cabinet portfolios are currently held by retired bureaucrats, judges, and military officers. Members of the caretaker government are prohibited from seeking parliamentary seats in the upcoming elections.

Somalia

Somalia has lacked any internationally recognized central government since the fall of the Siad Barre regime in 1991. The current Transitional Federal Government is the fifteenth attempt to create a formal state. The country is currently controlled by various political and regional factions as well as local warlords in the south and in two “republics” in the north. The former British colony of Somaliland—consisting of five districts in the northwest—declared independence in 1991, and the northeastern region—known as Puntland—declared autonomy in 1998.
