Commander, First Army
Governors Island, N. Y.

Dear General:

Heartiest congratulations upon your appointment
as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and I want to wish you loads of luck and success in said office, with best wishes in all your future endeavors.

Your splendid work in the past warranted this appointment and there is no doubt that the people of our country and the world will benefit by your future excellent work.

kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Harold R. Moskowitz

Dear Mr. Moskowitz:

Your thoughtful letter of congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of my appointment as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency is sincerely appreciated.

Although I am keenly aware of the problems ahead of me I am at the moment greatly encouraged and heartened by the confidence which the President has seen fit to place in me and the generous public support which has been made manifest by such letters as yours.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

J. B. SMITH
