

Director's Meeting

Monday, 21 May 1951

(Mr. Dulles was not present.)

There was discussion of the letter to Mr. Lovett on the request for CIA material for Congress. The Director said that he wanted to make certain changes in it before transmission.

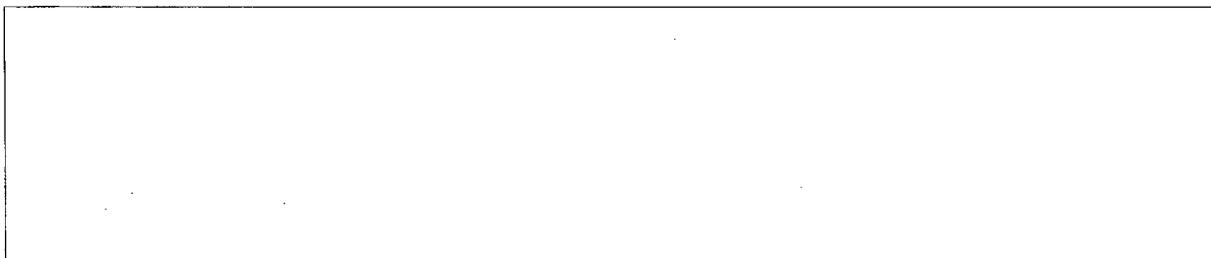

HR70-14

Mr. Wolf said that he had talked to [redacted] and that he would hear definitely today whether [redacted] would come with us.

Mr. Wolf reported that his staff had concluded that no legislation was necessary for CIA to establish a career service and that Col. Baird was working out the details.

The Director noted that the log had indicated that Czechoslovakia was willing to exchange AP correspondent Oatis for cessation of Radio Free Europe from Munich. He pointed out that the [redacted] case might be a bad precedent from this point of view and that we would have to be pretty hard-headed in being cajoled into this form of charter.

The Director asked if the details had been worked out as to what the doctor is to do in [redacted]

The Director agreed to the plans of Col. Hansen's sponsoring a dinner for certain top press representatives to discuss the world situation in the process of which CIA's press relations might be surveyed.

[redacted]
[redacted] and one for the purchase of radio equipment for O/PC--had been received.
