Mr. Dulles has had a talk with Gen. Magruder and they agree that there is no reason at this time for further study of [redacted] The DCI agrees and the whole matter of paramilitary operations worries him. Col.
Taylor said that he had already asked that the paper be withdrawn and the JCS will stop consideration of it. The DCI agreed to defer ~~his interest~~ and Col. Taylor will call Mr. Lay. consideration

Mr. Dulles reported that Col. Johnson has had a request for a debriefing of [redacted] before a high-level State Department group.
The DCI approved and further stated that [redacted] could answer all questions frankly but that they should add that they were expressing their own opinions and not necessarily the firm opinion of CIA.

Director's Meeting
31 October 1951

The DCI said that [redacted] had made an excellent impression on him and appeared qualified to head the Scientific Intelligence Survey team. He will be back next week and the DCI wants Mr. Jackson to see him.

The DCI said that [redacted] was considering the possibility of a change in paramilitary operations. He thought it might be possible to have a corp of volunteers subsidized by the Military but under our operational command. If this can be worked out, it will be a step in the right direction.

Mr. Wolf reported on the call from Senator Hayden in regard to a paper he had received on CIA use of printing facilities. The DCI will call Senator Hayden and suggest that Mr. Wolf see him. The DCI mentioned that before we go back to Congress on our building, we will have to have floor plans. Mr. Wolf said that these would be prepared. The Director asked that Pforzheimer prepare letters for his signature to Senators and Congressmen who had been of major assistance to us in regard to the building.
