Mr. Wisner (Cont'd.)

e. Noted that Chip Bohlen had highly praised the Cenis Report on Russia and he (Bohlen) intended to send a copy to George Kennan. After some discussion wherein Mr. Dulles noted he had seen a copy of this report, Mr. Becker undertook to secure additional copies.

f. Noted that he had talked with General McClure at some length concerning publicity being given to POW troubles [redacted] and that this matter had been referred to the POC, which agreed that "some" action should be taken without further delay. Mr. Wisner stated he would keep Mr. Dulles advised on this matter.

g. Asked Mr. Dulles what might be expected from CIA from the Ad Hoc Committee appointed on the Berlin situation. Mr. Dulles stated he had furnished a memorandum on this matter to DD/P and, after some discussion, a copy was also given to DD/I.

a. Noted that arrangements were being made for a central point of contact with the [redacted] which had been doing a considerable amount of work for us and, in particular, for OSI. Mr. Wisner asked that when this contact had been established [redacted] be advised. Mr. Becker undertook to do so.

b. Reported on a discussion he recently had with Park Armstrong concerning Harrison Salisbury and his writings and, after some discussion, Mr. Becker undertook to request State to make a brief analysis of this problem. Mr. Wisner stated if it "looked bad enough" we could then go direct to [redacted] of the [redacted] with whom this matter had previously been discussed.

c. Noted that the Prime Minister of Viet Nam had been replaced and at first blush such replacement appeared to be in our favor.

d. Referred to the item in today's Log concerning the Nepalese Government and stated some time ago State had discussed the possibility of establishing a mission in the northern part of Nepal since at that time there were 107 Americans in that area. After some discussion wherein Mr. Wisner stated he had asked for a further report on the above-mentioned item, he undertook to ascertain from State what further action, if any, had been taken in the establishment of the mission referred to by Mr. Becker.

e. Noted that [] was in Washington and that [] would be here in the near future. Mr. Earman undertook to determine whether the Director desired to see these people.
