Managing Director

Dear George:

Our people at Yokota Air Base, Japan, tell me that there are a number of rumors indicating the possibility that Air America may terminate its maintenance facilities at Yokota sometime this summer. As you know, there is rather limited maintenance capability in the general area to support our two Sabreliner aircraft presently based at Yokota.

If you plan to move from Yokota, we would appreciate receiving as much advance notice as possible so that we could, in turn, make appropriate alternate plans.

Will look forward to your next visit to Honolulu.

Sincerely,
