

17 September 1951

1. Among the representatives of the nationalities of Russia contacted by Kerenski in Paris, the most recent is ABRAMTCHIK, President of the Byelorussian Rada. According to reliable sources, Kerenski was very much taken by Abramtchik and was exceedingly pleased with the conversation they had together.
2. The so-called Maklakov group in Paris (led by the followers of Maklakov who visited the Soviet Embassy after the liberation) approached Melgoumoff sometime ago with the request that he give a report on the negotiations with the American Lyons Committee for the members of the group at their Center. Melgoumoff refused after learning that certain Russian exiles whom he regards as pro-Soviet (TATARINOV, etc.) were to be present at the conference. The group then approached Kerenski, who agreed to speak before the members.
