2. The above listing does not reflect requirements for specific S/W systems or documentation facilities (or supplies and equipment associated therewith) since it is understood that ISS, as the Agency component responsible for establishing such requirements, can be expected to have a wartime capability for the production of such documentation and S/W equipment and supply items as may be needed by Agency operational components at the Site.

3. SR does not foresee that any currency or bullion would be required.

Chief, SR Division
