D. Revealing of strong anti-Communist spirit in party elections in Bulgaria.

E. Krushchev's announcement to Hungarians that they would have to shift for themselves in event of another uprising, that Moscow would not dispatch her troops to liberate them.

F. All free nations represented at Brussels Fair, with exception of the Ukrainian SSR which nation is being represented by its "Big Brother". Therefore, Ukrainian emigres in free world displaying Ukrainian books, pamphlets, etc.

G. Ten million Ukrainians in ESEER and Asia have no Ukrainian schools, newspapers or books. Whereas, the only 50,000 Ukrainians in Jugoslavia have organized cultural organizations and a Ukrainian language newspaper.

2. Publications. Publications of the newspapers, SUCHASNA UKRAINA and UKRAINSKYI SAMOSTIYNIK have continued. The DIGEST OF THE SOVIET UKRAINIAN PRESS is continuing as a monthly by-product of the research activities of Prolog Associates, and is being supplied to interested Agency components. Because of mechanical difficulties encountered by Prolog Associates with their one available electric typewriter, the typing of articles for the first issue of the magazine PROLOGUE has been delayed. It now is expected to be ready for printing in mid-May.

3. Mailing Operations. The Ukrainian language INFORMATION BULLETIN was prepared for printing and is ready for mailing into the Soviet Ukraine during the month of May. Ukrainians in Poland continue to relay books received from the ABCASSOWARIES into the Ukraine.

4. Brussels Fair. The Munich office was requested to make contact arrangements for ABCASSOWARY-2 to meet with the Agency representative in Brussels who previously was briefed on the CASSOWARY complex.

Evaluation of Effectiveness:

Soviet press attacks against Ukrainian nationalists and the Ukrainian emigration continues with the general theme that "Ukrainian bourgeois nationalism" is an active force capable of direct threat and must be counteracted by all possible means.
