2. Publications

Publication of the newspapers SUCHASNA UKRAINA and the UKRAINSKYI SAMOSTIYNIK have continued. The DIGEST OF THE SOVIET UKRAINIAN PRESS is continuing as a monthly by-product of the research activities of ENVOI ASSOCIATES and is being supplied to interested Agency components. Subscriptions to the DIGEST from publishing houses and research and educational institutions are slowly increasing. The December issue of the INFORMATION BULLETIN was sent to printing. Delivery is promised for 9 December.

3. Mailing Operations

Receipted invoices were received from two libraries in Poland, Lublin and Warsaw, acknowledging receipt of four volumes of Krushchov's HISTORY OF THE UKRAINE and three volumes of the Ukrainian Encyclopedia. Seventeen technical and history books were mailed from the United States to individual addressees in Poland and 25 technical and history books were mailed to individual addressees in Poland from Australia.

4. Correspondence

Correspondence has been received from a young Ukrainian engineer with whom contact was made by ARCASSOWARY-27 at the Brussels Fair. The Ukrainian indicated in his letter that he returned home safely with the literature (ARCASSOWARY newspapers and the INFORMATION BULLETIN) which he accepted from ARCASOWARY-27 and requests that the contact be maintained. His letter contained two photographs of himself and ARCASOWARY-27 taken at the Fair.

5. Vienna Youth Festival

An outline of tentative plans for ARCASOWARY operations at the Vienna Youth Festival has been submitted by ARCASOWARY-2 and is being coordinated with Mr. Thomas Mills who is concerned with the Festival activities.

Evaluation of Effectiveness

Indications continue that Ukrainian nationalist activities are considered a threat to Communism. Page 4 of the No. 76 issue 1958 of KA VOZFRASHENNIE KA BODENI is almost completely taken up by a translation from the Ukrainian of a feuilleton by G. Rada titled, A MESSAGE FROM THE OTHER WORLD. The feuilleton describes the arrival in hell of Ukrainian nationalist leaders, their provocative and unworthy behavior, and how finally Lucifer himself, unable to stand their mendacity and vanity decided to chase them out of hell. The feuilleton quotes statements from several Ukrainian nationalist newspapers, the authors of which complain of the withdrawal from political activity of the bulk of the Ukrainian emigres.
