SUBJECT: ~~R~~DENKO, Grigoriy
Third Secretary, Soviet Embassy Bonn

SOURCE: AECASSOWARY/29

DATE OF INFO: 4 April 1966

1. The Subject has been showing Soviet films to emigre groups in the Frankfurt area in Germany. On 16 March 1966, he visited AECASSOWARY/36. Subject said he wanted A/36's opinion on whether to show the film Son (Dream) or a documentary. A/36 recommended Son. The Subject followed A/36's advice and left with the latter the documentary on the Ukraine. A/36 arranged for a private showing of the documentary for himself and a group of friends in a German theater. The documentary turned out to be a propaganda film, so A/36 returned it to the Subject with the comments that it was not suitable for showing to emigre groups.

2. The Subject told A/36 he would be glad to make arrangements for a summer vacation near Odessa, the UKSSR, for A/36's son. A/36 politely refused. He told the Subject that he may at some time in the future send his daughter to study in the Ukraine but that she would do so only at his (A/36's) expense.

3. The Subject was given a copy of Bereh Chekan' (Shore of Expectations) by A/36. Several days later he told A/36 that he found nothing revolutionary in the book.
