Excerpt from State Daily Log - October 1966:

7 October

Alleged Threat to DOBRYNIN and FEDORENKO

Frank Tully reported that State has received no additional information from the Soviets on the suspect assassin. He called later to say that Gromyko and Dobrynin motored to Washington, D. C. from New York City without incident. State Security provided escort. When they arrived in Washington on Saturday evening, the Soviets asked that detectives in a prowler car be available to follow them about. Gromyko and Dobrynin are scheduled to meet with President Johnson at 1700 in the White House and will take dinner with Secretary Rusk at 1930, probably in the State Department dining rooms. Mr. Tully indicated he had some leads from the FBI that he would send over to us. SB/CA - [ ] (with copy of log)
