MEMORANDUM FOR: The Deputy Director for Plans

SUBJECT: Correspondence with Zbigniew Brzezinski

REFERENCES: Letter from Mr. Brzezinski dated 1 November 1966, and the enclosed correspondence from Peter J. Potichnyj dated 3 and 28 October 1966

1. The following information may be of use to you in formulating a reply to Mr. Brzezinski.
2. There are no magazines similar to Kultura and Svedectvi published in Romanian or Bulgarian.
3. We do know about Peter J. Potichnyj. There is no derogatory information about him in our files. Potichnyj collaborated with a cover organization under one of our projects until 1961. We also know about Shakrai's pamphlet, Do Khvyli, and have access to a copy of it through the above-mentioned project. In 1962, the project published a small pocket book under the title Dokumenty Ukrain's'koho Komunizmu (Documents of Ukrainian Communism), which carried excerpts of Do Khvyli.
4. In view of these circumstances, we believe it would be appropriate in your reply to Mr. Brzezinski to say that it is felt Do Khvyli does warrant publication, if published in its entirety, in English, Ukrainian and perhaps even in Russian, and particularly in Ukrainian for dissemination among Soviet Ukrainians on whom it would have the greatest impact. Mr. Potichnyj should be told to try to interest a non-government organization or foundation in financially backing publication of the pamphlet, and that perhaps Prolog, Inc., listed at 875 West End Avenue in New York, who published Dokumenty Ukrain's'koho Komunizmu, also has a copy of the pamphlet Do Khvyli and may be planning to publish it in English.
