ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. The separate cover attachment (26 pages) is a copy of a Soviet document carried to the West in July of this year by IDEN I. The document, written in May 1966 by a Kiev journalist, is addressed to Petro SHELEST, 1st Secretary of the CC CPU. In it the writer protests against the arrests, imprisonment and continued harassment of Ukrainian intellectuals. He gives details concerning blackmail and other means of coercion to which the accused were and are being subjected, and lists examples of the arbitrary abuse of the letter and spirit of Soviet laws and the constitution.

2. The document was loaned to AECASSOWARY/29 for copying and exploitation and return to IDEN 1. We feel it would not be wise to place the document in the international mail system and would, therefore, appreciate your having it mailed locally by a staff employee, using a local envelope and affixing to it the appropriate amount of postage. AECASSOWARY/59 (IDEN 2) may be used as the return address. Both IDEN 1 and IDEN 2 will be aware that the document is being mailed, and IDEN 1 will notify AECASSOWARY/29 when it is received.
