11. Summary

NOTE: This operation is engaged in developing stay-behind assets for wartime tasks consisting of Escape and Evasion, limited sabotage, drop zones, and W/T facilities. In order to achieve these objectives, it is organizing and training assets during the cold war period. At present it has 80 cadre groups which are distributed geographically in accordance with the pattern of population concentration in the East Zone.

A. Organizational Summary

Assets - 11 November 199***

*This figure represents the last reported total from the field and does not take into consideration the recommendations of the CE/OI investigation for the dropping of certain assets.

B. Summary of Activity

(1) The results of the CE/OI investigation which had been pouched from the field were received here. As previously reported, there are 11 individuals with apparently sound security and 90 probably secure individuals in CADROWW. The report contained extensive recommendations as to future developments within the project.

(2) The German mission informed the home office that the results and recommendations of the CE/OI report represented the thinking of the Berlin Base and requested that no action be taken pending the receipt of their views.
