Lieutenant General Francis H. Griswold
Commandant, National War College
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Griswold:

This is in response to your letter of June 29 to the Director of Central Intelligence concerning the briefing on Tuesday, 9 October 1962, from 1400 to 1600 at the National War College on the subject of organization, functions and operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.

In response to a letter from General Quill, we have advised that either Mr. McCone or General Carter will address the combined colleges on the morning of the ninth on "Intelligence Considerations in the Formulation of National Security Policy."

We believe it would be appropriate for Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, the Executive Director of CIA, to make the presentation in the afternoon on the organization and activities of the Central Intelligence Agency and its relations with other departments of the government.

Mr. Matthew Baird, the Director of Training will work out the necessary details for this presentation with Mr. Wollam.

THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

JUN 29 1962

Dear Mr. McCone:

The National War College wishes to repeat the briefings of the past few years on the functions of the major departments and agencies most closely concerned with national security policy. The Central Intelligence Agency has a most important role in national security matters, and I would like to provide the class with a background on the functions, organization and operation of the agency in the field of intelligence gathering, evaluation, and coordination with other departments of the government.

I would appreciate having the briefing on Tuesday, 9 October 1962 from 1400 to 1600 hours at The National War College. This would be very convenient for our schedule since earlier on the same day we plan to consider the subject of "Intelligence Considerations in the Formulation of National Security Policy."

If you can confirm the above time it will be appreciated if you will provide the name of the officer who can work out the details with Mr. Park F. Wollam, Department of National Strategy, The National War College (Code 11, extension 58388).

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

FRANCIS H. GRISWOLD
Lieutenant General, USAF
Commandant

The Honorable John A. McCone
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.
