Dear Lewis:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful letter of 1 June concerning the talk that I made before the National Defense Executive Reserve.

I greatly appreciate your writing to me as you did and might add that it was a pleasure to participate in this meeting.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE
WASHINGTON 25

June 1 1959

The Honorable
Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my deep personal thanks, and the sincere appreciation of Administrator McCoy of the Business and Defense Services Administration, and his staff, for the inspiring and timely message you gave on May 12, 1959 to the BDSA Unit of the National Defense Executive Reserve.

Your contribution at that Conference helped most greatly in making the Conference a complete success.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary of Commerce
