STRATEGIC INFORMATION

February 28, 1955

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

In reply to your letter of January 6 and my reply of January 11, I would like to let you know that Mr. Swain has discussed with representatives of Mr. Demmler's office the matter of possible security significance of the information publicly available in the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The conclusion of this examination was that the publication of the material which they examined does not involve any appreciable strategic danger at this time.

Very truly yours,

R. Karl Honaman
Director
