Dear Mr. President:

I have your letter of 25 March concerning the three maps that were prepared by our people, and I am most appreciative of your writing to me about this.

It is gratifying to receive your generous comments and to learn from you about the results obtained from this graphic presentation. As you requested, I shall with great pleasure extend your sincerest gratitude to the persons here who were responsible for this work.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

As you know, I used three maps at my press conference on Thursday which were prepared by members of your staff. General Clifton has told me who the individuals are who were responsible for the excellent graphic work on these maps. Would you, on my behalf, extend to the following my sincerest gratitude for the many hours of work and the ultimate splendid results produced by them:
