Honorable Livingston T. Merchant
United States Ambassador-Designate to Canada
Room 1113 NE/E
Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Livie:

[redacted] letter is indeed touching. Our field representative in [redacted] has met Mr. [redacted] and has given him application forms which we expect to receive shortly.

Our representative reports that [redacted] makes an excellent first impression in both appearance and personality. He seems to be well-qualified as a translator and to have some substantive knowledge in economics which might add to his assets.

Since [redacted] will not become a U. S. citizen until September 1961 and because he has some relatives in Communist China, we shall not be able to employ him as a regular staff man. However, we shall investigate the possibility of contract work. This latter type of assignment can often be full-time work but it does not carry with it the same permanence as a staff position. You can be sure that we shall give [redacted] complete consideration.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director
